

It is "We the People" who vote
If you decide to vote - then you decide

Donald Trump 45 President of the Republic of the United States of America

Donald Trump, 47th President of the United States?

May God Bless the USA - Land of the Free

Blessed with its Constitution for the People with its Bill of Rights

Among those Rights is Freedom of Speech and Expression through the Vote

The last time I voted was for Al Gore. I felt he was cheated out of the win.

I did vote for Hillary Clinton during primary - over the Brown Bomber. But in retrospect I still feel that President Obama wanted what was BEST for the people of the USA, all of its people. But truthfully, did the Republicans give him a chance.

I shall vote for D. Trump as I feel he is the best bet for keeping us out of war, always wars.

I feel Pres. Biden, or those who control him, want conflict & war. I may be wrong. Either way Either way, DO VOTE. I am refugee immigrant (1954) In no other country could I do this. 1st amendment says I can!
